

Choosing Benefits Doesn't Have to Be a Chore

Because choosing your benefits can sometimes be a slog, we want you to know about ALEX®, the virtual benefits counselor. This easy-to-use online tool is funny, speaks in plain English (not insurance-talk), and is available to help you figure out which benefits plans will best serve your needs (anonymously, of course).

Get benefits guidance that's (dare we say) fun at <https://www.myalex.com/Pinal-County-Government/2019>
